

Conference program

Current issues in business law

international conference

April 20, 2026 10AM (Central European Time) Room QAF17
University of Technology and Economics (Budapest, Hungary)
online participation:

Business law conference | Értekezlet-csatlakozás | Microsoft Teams

Opening remarks

10.00-10.20 (CET)

Anikó Grad-Gyenge

Head of Department, Department of Business Law, Faculty of Economic and Social Sciences
University of Technology and Economics Budapest (Hungary)

Session 1

10.20-12.20 (CET)

Chair: Anikó Grad-Gyenge (Hungary)

Romana Matanovac Vučković, Moral Rights and Cross-Border Technology Transfer:
Perspectives from EU and Comparative Copyright Law (Croatia)

Gilberto Guerrero Rocca, When Green Policies Go Wrong: A Wake-up Call for Investor-State
Arbitration and a 'Golden' Opportunity for Illegal Mining in LATAM (USA)

Toni Deskoski, Vangel Dokovski, Ljuben Kocev, The CISG as the Law Governing the Arbitration Agreement: A Step Too Far? (North Macedonia)

Rajendra Parsad Gunput, Consumer Protection in International Business Law: Where Does
International Contracts Stand with the Burgeoning of Artificial Intelligence (AI)? (Mauritius)

Marija Mijatović, Tamara Gajinov, Zoran Vavan, Artificial Intelligence and Liability of Business Entities According to EU AI Act (Serbia)

Gábor Hajdu, Digital Partnerships and Trade Agreements: the EU's Evolving Approach
(Hungary)

Session 2
14.00-16.20 (CET)

Chair: Rajendra Parsad Gunput (Mauritius)

Toni Deskoski, Vangel Dokovski, Ljuben Kocev, Applicability of the CISG by National Courts and Arbitral Tribunals (North Macedonia)

Bengi Sargin, Reflection of the Debtor's Default under Article 1530 of the Turkish Commercial Code No. 6102 in Turkish Private International Law (Turkey)

Bhavna Mahadew, Corporate Accountability and ESG Compliance in Emerging Economies: Legal Challenges and Regulatory Developments in a Globalized Business Environment (Mauritius)

Aleksandra Čvorović, Competition Concerns from AI Act, Intersection between DMA, DSI and AI Act and Regulatory Landscape as Market Access Barrier (Serbia)

Péter Pap, Ensuring Labor Market Equality as a Foundation for Economic Success (Hungary)

Paulina Gajewska, Artificial Intelligence in Business and Academia and the Need for Transparent Rules (Poland)

Simona Grigaliūnienė, The Digital Transformation in Science – New Era of Digital Studies and Tendencies of the Change's Influenced by AI (Lithuania)