- When used for foundation courses, “A” and “B” refer to day sections in the full-time program; “C” refers to the first semester of the part-time; and “D” refers to the third semester of the part-time program.
- Courses starting at or after 6:00 pm are deemed “evening courses”.
- The reading period and examination schedule are subject to change due to extraordinary conditions (e.g., inclement weather, health emergency).
- Unless otherwise noted, 2 credit courses meet once per week for 110 minutes, though that includes an optional 10 minute break, 3 credit courses meet twice per week for 75 minutes, 4 credit courses meet twice per week for 110 minutes, which also assumes an optional 10-minute break per class meeting.
