

Get 24/7 access to study guides on or off campus via the LexisNexis® Digital Library

Your law school provides complimentary, school-wide access to a collection of eBook study aids to help you succeed in class and on exams.

From first-year courses such as Property, Torts, Constitutional and Criminal Law to upper-level subjects such as Evidence, Corporations, Antitrust Law and more, a broad range of titles from Carolina Academic Press are available on demand via all major laptop, tablet and smartphone devices—all you need is your web browser.

Build your understanding of course concepts:

Understanding Series: Get concise analysis that is highly regarded by students, professors and practicing attorneys for a foundation of each covered subject.

Questions & Answers Series: Assess your progress and prepare for finals with this collection of titles containing 200 – 400 multiple-choice and short-answer questions in each book, as well as a “practice final exam.”
