Welcome to Symlicity

What is Symplcity?

Symplcity is the Ovadia CP&P Office's online job posting database. Students and alumni have access to the postings via the drop-down menu tab "Jobs & Resume Collection" and selecting "CSM Jobs." Job posting results can be filtered by utilizing the "Advanced Search" option to customize the job search process with specified criteria.

The Ovadia CP&P Office maintains the job posting database as a service to students, alumni and employers, and does not validate or guarantee the accuracy of the information posted. The Ovadia CP&P Office does not endorse the opportunities posted or the people or organizations posting them. Applicants are encouraged to research employers and opportunities.

FIU College of Law has made an announcement Barkett Appellate Inn of Court

We invite you to apply to become a student member of the Rosemary Barkett Appellate American Inn of Court. The Barkett Inn of Court, which was chartered in 2009 by organizers at FIU COL and the Third District Court of Appeal, works with students at all three law schools in Miami-Dade County. Students who join the Barkett Appellate Inn of Court will have opportunities to network with judges, scholars, and leading appellate practitioners in the community and to work with these individuals to hone the craft of appellate writing and oral argument. Some students may also have the opportunity to work with an appellate practitioner, for example, to represent an indigent client in a case before the Third District Court of Appeal.

If you are interested – please see the short application process and deadline (detailed below), and do note the upcoming Barkett Inn of Court event to be held on Thursday, November 18 (also detailed below).
