II. Selecting Upper-Level Courses

• A. What types of Upper-Level Courses are offered at FIU Law?
  – 1. Doctrinal Courses
  – 2. Skills/Simulation Courses
  – 3. Experiential Courses
  – 4. Non-Classroom Work
1. Doctrinal Courses

a. What is a Doctrinal Course?
   – Vast majority of courses taught at FIU Law.
   – Courses generally utilize casebooks and other sources of primary law (like statutes and regulations) to teach material.
   – Students are generally evaluated by examination (essay, short answer, multiple choice) and/or paper, and class participation.
1. Doctrinal Courses

b. Are there specific types of Doctrinal Courses that I am required to take?
   - Yes.
     - Two Litigation and Alternative Dispute courses (could also be satisfied by one or more Skills Courses);
     - One Upper-Level International Law course;
     - One seminar;
     - Professional Responsibility
   - Wait! What is a seminar?
     - A doctrinal course that is focused on a very specific area of the law.
     - Enrollment is generally capped at 15 students.
     - Grade is based on a paper (generally 25-30 pages or longer), class presentations, and other class participation.
     - Sample seminar course titles: Law and Literature; The Sierra Leone Tribunal’s Contribution to International Law.
1. Doctrinal Courses

• c. How do I know whether a course satisfies the specific J.D. requirements?
  – Registrar’s Office will provide Course Registration Guide, which lists all courses and which (if any) requirements they fulfill; and

• d. Can a single course satisfy two or more specific J.D. requirements?
  – Yes. For example, you could satisfy both the International and Seminar requirements by taking The Sierra Leone Tribunal Seminar.

Degree Audit
Degree Audit

You have no Panther Degree Audit at this time. Panther Degree Audit is available for active degree seeking Graduate, Law and Undergraduate Students.
1. Doctrinal Courses

• e. Do any Doctrinal Courses have pre-requisites?
  – Yes. For example, Mergers and Acquisitions requires Business Organizations (as do many other Upper-Level business courses).
  – Registrar’s Office will provide Course Registration Guide, which lists all courses that have pre-requisites.
  – You can get a full list of all FIU Law courses, which includes a brief course description and all pre-requisites and co-requisites at:
1. Doctrinal Courses

• f. Other than the specific J.D. requirements, does FIU Law recommend I take any other Doctrinal Courses?
  – Yes!
    • Bar-Tested Courses
    • Other Strongly Recommended Doctrinal Courses

  – 2. Skills/Simulation Courses
  – 3. Experiential Courses
  – 4. Non-Classroom Work
3. Skills/Simulation Courses

• You must complete six credit hours of experiential or simulation courses in order to graduate.
2. Skills/Simulation Courses

a. What is a Skills/Simulation Course?

Focus on developing lawyering skills.

Do not focus on a specific area of law; rather, they use simulations from various areas of the law to train students on lawyering skills like:

- Writing
- Oral Advocacy
- Trial Skills

Students in skills courses are traditionally evaluated by oral argument performance, mock trial performance, brief, paper, and/or class participation.
2. Skills/Simulation Courses

b. Are there any Skills/Simulation Courses that I am required to take?
   - Yes.
     * LSV III.
     * Two Litigation or Alternative Dispute Resolution Courses (can also be satisfied with Doctrinal courses).
     * Six credits of simulation/experiential courses (can also be satisfied with Experiential courses).

c. Do any Skills/Simulation Courses have pre-requisites or co-requisites?
   - Yes.
     * LSVIII requires completion of LSV I and LSV II.
     * Advanced Appellate Advocacy requires completion of LSV I and LSV II and all Foundation Courses.
     * Trial Advocacy requires Evidence as a pre-or-co-requisite.
     * The Registrar’s Office will provide Course Registration Guide, which lists all courses that have pre-requisites.
2. Skills/Simulation Courses

• d. Is there anything else I need to know about Skills/Simulation Courses?

  – Yes. In order to qualify for the Moot Court team, you must complete Advanced Appellate Advocacy in the Fall of your 2L year.
  – You do not have to take Trial Advocacy before trying out for Trial Team.
  – What is the difference between Moot Court and Trial Team?
