Job Description: Fast paced criminal defense firm seeking full time paralegal for a term of two months to assist with a document intensive Federal Health Care trial beginning in May in Fort Lauderdale. The candidate will help get documents ready for trial, sit through trial, and call up documents as needed. This will require someone with familiarity with both legal and technological issues. This is a great opportunity for a responsible hardworking paralegal who is interested in obtaining experience in both the trial preparation and trial stages of a Federal criminal case.

Requirements: The candidate must be able to start the position immediately. The candidate must be available to work past regular business hours and weekends, as necessary, during the two-month period.

Pay/Benefits: Compensation commensurate with experience.
