The LL.M. Program at FIU Law offers a first rate legal education to foreign attorneys interested in becoming acquainted with the legal system of the United States and its global dimension. Our courses are taught by a world-class distinguished and experienced faculty, connected with the local, regional and global legal communities. Our cutting edge curriculum is infused with international and comparative law elements in ways that only few United States law schools do. Our wide-ranging offering of doctrinal courses with experiential opportunities, and our affordable price sets FIU Law apart from other schools, and makes our LL.M. program very attractive.

Lawyers from every continent and from a very diverse background in terms of professional experience and expertise have been attracted to our LL.M. program since its inception, thus enriching our academic community and enhancing the diversity of our student body. The size of our highly selective and competitive LL.M. program allows intensive collaboration between faculty and students, and fosters long-term professional relationships that go beyond the classroom. The fact that FIU Law is located in Miami, Florida, a bustling metropolis that serves as a hub between the Americas and the rest of the world, coupled with its sophisticated, multicultural, and dynamic legal community is also an important reason that makes our LL.M. program a top choice.

FIU Law is a dynamic, young and fast growing institution of academic excellence attuned to the challenges of globalization and devoted to serving the academic and local community. FIU Law is part of Miami's first and only public university committed to high-quality teaching, state-of-the-art research and creative activity, and collaborative engagement with our local and global communities. FIU Law has been recognized as among the most diverse and best value law schools in the United States, and our graduates have obtained the highest passage rate in the Florida Bar exam. FIU Law students routinely participate and excel in prestigious national and international competitions, and are consistently involved in myriads of other educational and community oriented activities outside the classroom, which helps strengthening their global citizenship.
GENERAL INFORMATION

- 1 year (2 semesters) full time program, with possibility of part-time enrollment
- A minimum of 24 credits is needed to complete the program
- Fall admission only; classes start in August, 2016 and finish in May, 2017
- Application deadline: May 15, 2016
- Our LL.M. program allows for intensive collaboration between faculty and students, and fosters long-term professional relationships that go beyond the classroom.
- Possibility of immersion and interaction with the sophisticated, multicultural, and dynamic legal community of South Florida

CURRICULUM

- Specialized curriculum infused with international and comparative law components, and taught by world-class professors
- Possibility of enrolling in most law courses from the first year curriculum, in courses approved by the New York Board of Bar Examiners, and other jurisdictions
- The only three required LL.M. courses are those listed below, thus giving each student ample possibility of selecting courses on specific areas of concentration depending on their individual interests.
  - Legal Skills and Values for LLM students (Fall)
  - U.S. Law I (Fall)
  - U.S. Law II (Spring)

ADMISSIONS

- To apply you will need to provide the following documents to the LSAC LL.M. Applicant Services http://llmprod.lsac.org:
  - Transcripts from a completed first degree in law from a foreign university
  - English proficiency exam: TOEFL (590 paper-based, 250 computer-based, or 90 internet-based) or IELTS (7.0)
  - 2 letters of recommendation
  - Curriculum Vitae
  - Statement of Intent
  - Interview by phone may be required

TUITION

- 2016-2017 Annual tuition and fees for the LL.M. is $20,180
- $30 application fee (waivable)